Albany

Caring is at the heart of everything we do...

Albany is a 38-bedded home and provides residential and nursing care.

Our rooms are set across two floors with communal spaces available for all. We have a ground floor dining room, lounge and conservatory for residents and visitors alike to enjoy. We have a lovely garden with a bandstand, children's play area and a mini putting green. Mature gardens and patio area surround the home.

Our care team are passionate about providing truly person-centred care.

Our meal experience is excellent, with our chef and catering team working hard to create meals that are both nutritious and tasty, using fresh seasonal ingredients.

"My father was in Albany Care Home for 9 years. The care that he received from the staff was excellent. They were like an extended family for him. The love and care he received were second to none."

"My mother received excellent care from a dedicated staff who made her feel very well loved. It was so good and reassuring to know she was in such good hands. She particularly enjoyed the excellent food!"

I had a wonderful experience in the Albany. Everyone looked after me extremely well and were kind. The food was exceptional. I consider myself very fortunate to have been in the Albany and am most grateful."
